eration, and that he confers as a not unsympathetic friend who desires to aid to the extent of his ability in a matter where he has not only a constitutional duty to perform, but where he may be assumed to be able to judge of the effect of legislation upon our relations with other countries.

"He has pointed out the things which seem to him unwise in the bill that has passed the senate. The words to which he calls attention are 'eligible to citizenship,' which are as clearly discriminatory as the words 'ineligible to citizenship' against which he so earnestly advises. In the second paragraph the property rights of those therein described are defined as they are defined in the rest of the bill. He fears that this will raise a question of construction and involves the subject in a law suit that may be both irritating and protracted.

Suggestion Submitted to Wilson.

"I have submitted to him the suggestion—but, owing to his absence from Washington just at this time, have been unable to secure an answer—that the time limit upon any bill you pass might reduce to a minimum the unfavorable influence it exerts. This influence is unfavorable, if, for instance, any bill that you pass dealing with the subject is limited in its operations to two years—or even four years, but two years would give opportunity for the next legislature to act upon the subject—it would afford an opportunity for diplomatic effort with the hope that the situation could be so improved as to make a re-enactment of the law unnecessary. Assuming that the people of California will be satisfied to reach the end which they desire by methods which will cause the least friction between this and other nations, this suggestion is made for the consideration of those who have yet to act upon the subject.

"If the legislature is willing to avoid the use of the words 'eligible to citizenship,' or 'ineligible to citizenship,' I am authorized to suggest that the time limit be drawn at another point, namely, between those whose right to own land is defined by treaty and those whose right to own land is not defined by treaty, the former to be allowed to own according to the terms of the treaty, and the latter to be allowed to hold on the same terms that citizens of the United States hold land. But the President desires me to keep before you at all times the fact that he would prefer, consistently with his views of the state's interests, to have all action deferred for a time sufficient to permit him to employ diplomatic means.

Rehearses the Objections.

In summing up, Secretary Bryan rehearsed the objections and suggestions of the President, already made public, and concluded:

"Having performed the duty imposed upon me by the chief executive of the nation, my work is done. You have listened patiently and courteously and now the responsibility rests upon you to do what you deem necessary, recognizing, as you doubtless do, that you act not only as the representatives of the state, dealing with lands lying within the state, but as the representatives of a state occupying a position among her sister states and sharing with them an interest in and responsibility for international relations.

"You are fortunate in this state in having the initiative and referendum. The initiative puts you on to do that which you believe your people want done, while the referendum empowers those for whom you speak to put their veto upon your acts if you fail to reflect their wishes.

"It may be assumed, therefore, that if you feel it your duty to enact any legislation on this subject at this time, your people will either manifest their approval by acquiescence or their disapproval by withholding their action to the judgment of the voters by means of the referendum.

Johnson Sees Victory for People.

The passage of the alien land law, in spite of the softening clause permitting leases to ineligible foreigners, will be regarded by Gov. Johnson as a great victory for the people of the state. He has had the law before him since it was passed by the assembly last year, and he has been waiting for an opportunity to see it through. "When this bill has passed the assembly we shall have made it impossible for aliens who are ineligible to citizenship to get a foothold on the land of California.

"We have had the law before us for a long time, and it has been considered seriously by the assembly. It has been a long time since we have had a law of this kind, and it is a great victory for the people of the state. It is a law that will do much to protect our land from the hands of foreigners who are ineligible to citizenship.

"This was done at the earnest request of the farmers of the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys, so that fair opportunity should be given to adjust themselves to the new conditions. Two years hence, if the legislature desires, it may eliminate the leasing clause, but to do it suddenly would mean ruin to our farmers. We will wait a brief period for readjustment, may prevent that ruin. I believe that two years from now there will be further legislation."

Will Hold Up Land Bill.

Dr. Jordan Believes People Will Ultimately Send Case to Supreme Court.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 3.—California citizens who oppose the anti-alien land ownership bill passed by the California senate will hold its operation in suspense by an appeal to the supreme court, the validity of the law will be tested in the federal supreme court, according to President David Starr Jordan of Leland Stanford University, who is here attending the peace congress.

This opinion was expressed by Dr. Jordan in an address before the city club here this afternoon.

The case that in the opinion of Dr. Jordan will result in a decision as to whether a law can be drawn between the property owning rights of Persians, Armenians, Turks and kindred nationalities, entitled to citizenship, and the Japanese and Chinese who are not eligible under the federal laws.

Considers Bill Unconstitutional.

Dr. Jordan said personally he considers the bill unconstitutional.

"I am opposed to a state usurping federal power," he said. "If the United States maintains its standing among other nations, it must act as a unit. If it allows California to do something to usurp its power, and then tries to fix the blame where it belongs, the question soon would be asked 'Who is to govern?'"

Duchess of Connaught Improving.

LONDON, May 3.—The condition of the Duchess of Connaught, it was announced tonight, remains unchanged. The patient has shown some improvement since the second operation Tuesday, and her strength is fairly well maintained.

Beautiful Toilettes Seen; Few in Society Missing; At Horse Show Opening

The first two or three events of the afternoon. The coming of Miss Eleanor Wilson and Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, escorted by Dr. Grayson, U. S. N., created quite a stir in the grandstand, where, on the lower half dozen seats, there were then but few empty seats. The President's daughter had a number of visitors, and thoroughly enjoyed the events on the card.

Miss Wilson wore a gown of king's blue crepe de chine with a black hat faced with blue velvet and trimmed with flowers.

Miss Bones wore gray crepe de chine, with a black hat trimmed with a single ostrich plume shading from red to black.

Few Were Missing.

Society evidently gave its afternoon willingly to the show, and few of those who had interest in fashionable life were missing. Smart toilettes were the rule. Visiting between the boxes was like a gala night at the opera.

In Col. Thompson's box a waiter at 5 o'clock served hot tea or cool lemonade, as his party desired. The men serving the cooling drinks, and in progress begging for consumers.

Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh entertained a box party. She wore a light gray tailored suit with black satin cuffs and collar, and a black hat trimmed with black plumes.

Mrs. Peter Golet Gerry, Mrs. Townsend wore a smart suit of black satin, with a small black hat trimmed with white, with a large black hat with aigrette, and Mrs. Riano was in a white corded silk suit, with a lace blouse and a bright purple hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beale McLean had in their box Mme. Bakmeteff and Mrs. Havens and her young son. Mrs. McLean wore an embroidered white mull with a giraffe of mauve satin and a white lace hat with white ostrich plumes. Her wrap was a loose coat of Irish lace.

Mme. Bakmeteff wore gray crepe de chine and a fanning black hat, trimmed with white ostrich. Mme. Havens wore a black crepe meteor costume and a broad brimmed flat hat, with black aigrette.

With Mr. and Mrs. Glover.

In Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Glover's box were their daughter, Mme. Van Swinderen of The Hague, who wore a pleated chiffon costume, with a black hat trimmed with flowers and tulle. Mrs. Glover was in black crepe meteor, with a small black hat, Mr. C. C. Glover, Jr., and Miss Marion Wise, his fiancée, the latter in a white serge suit and a lingerie hat with white ostrich feather trimmings; Mrs. Mary May, black satin suit and small black hat; Miss Margaret Howard, white coat suit and a large white hat; Mrs. William Haywood, gray crepe and a black-and-white hat; Mrs. Young, gray satin suit and light hat; Mrs. William B.
